Knights of Columbus Breakfast!

Sunday, Dec 1st

After the 8:30 AM and

10:30 AM Masses

♦ All are invited ♦

Anita Schacher, a parishioner of Our Lady of Victory (and a former parishioner of St. Mary, Star of the Sea), will be in attendance at the Knight's Breakfast on Dec. 1st to present her newest book, "Wounded in the Womb." This is the story (somewhat fictionalized) of the adoption and raising of her daughter Melinda who was born prematurely and diagnosed with multiple disabilities attributed to her birth mother's drug use and lack of prenatal care. The book has been described as inspirational, educational, and entertaining. There are many references to St. Mary's and Star of the Sea school.

The Catholic Daughters are pleased to announce the cookbook will be available for purchase after all the masses on November 30/December 1. This collection of recipes is from parishioners and the cost is $20. What a great gift idea!
